

Quilts: Warmth Through the Generations

On display now until mid-October

Elman W. Campbell Museum
(134 Main Street South)

Tuesdays to Saturdays
10 a.m. to Noon, 1 to 4 p.m.

Showcasing 44 stunning quilts and quilt blocks including some made by Elman W. Campbell's mother and grandmother, as well as quilts loaned by members of our community. Curated by Lynn Robitaille and Janet Charpentier-Burling. Free admission.

Drop in Family Art with Heart

September 21

October 19

Old Town Hall (460 Botsford Street)

6:30 to 8 p.m.

Code: Sept 118709 | Oct 118710

Families have the opportunity to create art in a collaborative spirit using a range of art materials and techniques. This program strengthens the cultural fabric of our community by allowing an opportunity for intergenerational learning and sharing. Each session will feature different art based activities and feature different special guests including local artists and storytellers who will drop in to share their wisdom, gifts, reflections and especially their love of art. $10/ per family of four. Register at play.newmarket.ca

For up-to-date weather and/or cancellation details of Town organized outdoor events call 1-877-752-9936 on the date of the event 2 hours prior to the start time.

For all other inquiries contact the Town of Newmarket 905-895-5193.

The Elman W. Campbell Museum presents: Rebel Heartland

September 22 to 23

Various locations around historic downtown Newmarket

Saturday 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Sunday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A large-scale re-enactment of the 1837 Upper Canada Rebellion, in which Newmarket played a vital role. The ARCH Committee, comprised of the Newmarket Historical Society, Heritage Newmarket and the Elman W. Campbell Museum, will present the re-enactment throughout the downtown areas, and an interactive military encampment at Fairy Lake Park. The event will involve a combination of outdoor live demonstrations and activities where the public is invited to interact with rebels, the military, sutlers, vendors, music and craftspeople. This event is suitable for all ages. Free admission. Visit newmarket.ca/museum for more details.

2018 Culture Days

Saturday, September 29

Old Town Hall (460 Botsford Street)

Newmarket Public Library
(438 Park Avenue)

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

This year Culture Days is celebrating the theme of 'Beats' and in Newmarket it's 'All About the Beat'.

- The Old Town Hall will host a variety of activities including Creative Writing workshops, Spoken Word and Beat Cypher workshops, hands-on drumming circle activity and discussion, and an interactive open space event for 'iWonder' as a part of the Newmarket Cultural Master Plan.
- The Newmarket Public Library will be showcasing Arduino and Raspberry Pi Beat Boxes, learn how to play a new instrument with guidance from a music expert. Create music with Makey Makey technology, 3D print your own guitar pick and join them for interactive Karaoke! Visit newmarketpl.ca to discover more!

Princess and Superhero Party

📅 Saturday October 27

📍 Magna Centre (800 Mulock Drive)

🕒 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Come dressed as your favourite princess, prince or superhero for the day! Enjoy games, crafts, inflatables and stage shows. $5/per child, parents and guardians free.

Boo-seum Fun at the Museum

📅 Saturday October 27

📍 Elman W. Campbell Museum
(134 Main Street South)

🕒 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Join us for a howling good time as we turn the museum into a boo-seum! Halloween displays, crafts and try a Halloween hunt! Suitable for ages 4 to 10 years. $3/ per child, parents and guardians are free.

Newmarket Historical Society: First World War Interactive Trench Exhibit

📅 Saturday, November 3 to 17

🕒 Monday to Friday 4 to 8 p.m.

🕒 Weekends Noon to 8 p.m.

📍 Old Town Hall (460 Botsford Street)

Experience a unique look at Newmarket's history during the First World War; travel through a replica trench and subway tunnel, see First World War artifacts, real footage of Newmarket soldiers heading off to war, and learn about how the town celebrated its soldiers when they returned! For more information on the exhibit, hours, private tours for local schools, or how to get involved visit newmarkethistoricalsociety.ca or email at newmarkethistoricalsociety@hotmail.ca!

Santa Claus Parade

📅 Saturday, November 17

🕒 11 a.m.

Santa Claus is coming to Town! Join us in welcoming Santa Claus to Newmarket! The parade begins at 11 a.m. at the corner of Lorne Avenue and Eagle Street and continues East on Eagle street before heading North on Main Street to end at Ontario Street.

Winter Wonderland and Newmarket Ice Lounge

📅 November 30, 2018 to January 4, 2019

📍 Newmarket Riverwalk Commons
(200 Doug Duncan Drive)

🕒 6 to 9 p.m.

Winter wonderland is the most beautiful light display in Newmarket hosted for a month during December and January. Enjoy free skating! Children are invited to take a ride on the Express Train (owned and operated by the Town of Newmarket) on Friday and Saturday nights. Weather permitting and free of charge. Frozen Fridays are back! Friday November 30, December 7, 14, 21, 28 and January 4 enjoy free outdoor skating, live DJ and free warm beverages!